A Personal Message To Every Voter...

My loyalty to the people of this District and to my Country has never been questioned.

Everyone who, without political prejudice, has examined my voting record in the 80th and 81st Congress has found it completely sound for the individual, for the District, and for our free American way of life.

The approaching election can well be the "turning point" in our struggle with Communism . . . with wild governmental experiments in Socialism . . . with other cancerous growths now endangering our personal and national freedom.

I sincerely urge you to make yourself heard in every branch of government on November 7 . . . by VOTING for the men whose records prove they will not abandon the fight for economy in government, sensible taxation, a preservation of our free enterprise system, and a strong national defense.

The hour to "speak up" is near!

Kiwanis Party was Some Punkins!

A Hallowe'en party staged by the Carmel Kiwanis Club at the Sunset School athletic field Tuesday night was attended by an estimated five hundred children and four hundred adults.

Dressed in a great array of appropriate costumes, the younger set took the situation in hand from 7 to 8:30 P.M., after which their elders adjourned to the gymnasium for dancing. Principal attractions at the athletic field were Stolte's truck (which served as the judging stand), the food and drink booths, and the balloon booth. Dick Sumner served as master of ceremonies.

A grand prize of $25 was awarded to Christine Donnelly, who was dressed like a southern belle. Other prizes were awarded to Stanton and Stephen Gray, sons of the Reverend K. Fillmore Gray; Patrick Woolsey and Suzanne Rickey; Christopher Engle; Patricia Elston and Dale Dawson.

Judges were the Reverend Alfred Seccombe, Mrs. Julian von Meier, president of the P.T.A., and Mayor Allen Knight. Their judging technique proved so popular that several of the smaller children went through the line three or four times.

Costumes included representations of a Chinese boy, a Russian boy, a pair of bats in dyed "longies," a pair of skunks, and moustaches and beards for a set of 18-month-old twins in a perambulator.

A total of 800 prizes was given away. Those attending were the recipients of 2,000 balloons, 1,200 cups of cider, a mountain of popcorn and 64 dozen doughnuts. Music was broadcast over a public address system loaned by the Naval Air Station. Lumber for booths was donated by Thomas French.

Kiwanis president Art Hull, in charge of the party, announced that its popularity and success definitely call for an annual repeat--with more prizes and more pumpkins.

SPECTATOR MOVES TO NEW OFFICES

This weekend THE CARMEL SPECTATOR, now in its third year of publication, takes another step forward by moving its offices and plant to a building it has leased on Seventh between Dolores and San Carlos. This new location was formerly occupied by the Railway Express and is a familiar spot to most Carmel residents. (See story elsewhere about Railway Express moving.) The move to new quarters with a ground floor location is necessary in order to install presses and camera equipment to keep pace with the growth of the CARMEL SPECTATOR, THE ARMED FORCES SPECTATOR and other publishing and printing activities of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Purnell Gould, owners of the SPECTATORS.

Ralph Erion, well known Peninsula printer and publisher, has joined Mr. and Mrs. Gould in a partnership establishing THE SPECTATOR PRESS for the purpose of conducting a job-printing and publication business in the new offices and plant. Mr. Erion publishes the MONTEREY COUNTY FARM BUREAU NEWS, the PEBBLE BEACH DIRECTORY, the CARMEL VALLEY DIRECTORY and directories in the San Francisco Bay area.

Since the pioneering by the Goulds, in February 1949, in publishing a newspaper in this area by the use of a varityper and offset printing, many requests for job printing have been received, which were not accepted because of lack of printing facilities. With the formation of the SPECTATOR PRESS such orders can now be filled. Interested business people or private parties desiring any kind of printing can now contact any representative of the SPECTATOR in person or by telephone at 7-6451, the SPECTATOR number, or at 7-4913, the SPECTATOR PRESS.

After November 7, those interested in job printing, advertising or news items will find the SPECTATORS and the SPECTATOR PRESS at their new location on Seventh Street between Dolores and San Carlos.

NEW CARMEL BUSINESSMAN... Fred Scatena, above, has recently joined the local office of Davies & Mejia, members of the New York Stock Exchange. Mr. Scatena is a registered representative of the firm and of the New York Stock Exchange Association. He is working with Cyrus B. Johnson, local manager. A native of Sacramento, Fred comes to Carmel from the Davies & Mejia office in that city. This is not his first residence in Carmel, nor his first business association here, for he maintained an insurance office in Carmel in 1947. Fred Scatena is a graduate of the University of California, Berkeley, is unmarried, and during the war served as a captain in the Marines.

Carmel Work Center Notes

By Carol Tindell

Did you take our suggestion last week and start your Christmas shopping to avoid last minute rush? Good. All your out-of-town friends and relatives will be delighted with a gift from Carmel Work Center for, as you know, everything is made by craftsmen living on the Monterey Peninsula.

We have quite a list of suggestions this week. For the gentlemen... there is a smart selection of hand-tailored plaid ties and an extra-special bottle opener with a good long handle that they can get hold of. In the ladies' department we have those beautiful hand-woven table mats in lovely soft pastel shades with a band of silver... made in cotton or linen. The Virginia Blair collection of plates, bowls and tiles always makes wonderful gifts... Ask to see her ceramic buttons and pins.

Don't miss the exquisite hand-wrought silver. There are complete table settings and beautiful serving pieces.

It's also Christmas card time and we have for you Charlotte Morton's cards showing Carmel scenes which are so nice to send to those of your friends who have visited Carmel or... who have never seen our beautiful little village.

Do come in and let us help you with your Christmas selections.

SMOOTH TIRES

Tires that are worn smooth should be recapped or replaced before rainy weather sets in, advises the California State Automobile Association. Smooth tires skid more easily, and they also puncture more readily because of their tendency to pick up nails and other foreign objects.

"RAGS, BOTTLES AND SACKS," the junkman's ancient cry, would not have been an appropriate theme song for the Carmel Woman's Club rummage sale Monday because many of the items definitely didn't fit into a junky category. A large crowd was on hand when the clubhouse doors opened in the morning, and by closing time most of the rummage articles had found new owners.

WHO IS IT?

This is one of a series of photographs of persons you should know. All "Who Is It?" personalities are well-known residents of the Monterey Peninsula. For this week's answer turn to Page 12

Soroptimists See Pictures of Ethiopia

About 40 members and guests of the Monterey Peninsula Soroptimist Club met Tuesday evening at the Carmel home of Gladys R. Johnston. Each guest brought with him dishes of food for the gathering, and an interesting evening's entertainment was had viewing colored pictures of Ethiopia, other parts of Africa, and France. The pictures were provided and shown by Paul Bomberger, formerly of Modesto, who now makes his home in Carmel.

McClains Married 60 Years

Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. McClain of Carmel yesterday did something that very few persons ever do--they celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary. They were honored at a tea by a few of their old friends.

The McClains were married in 1890 in Visalia. They have three living children, one of whom, Frank Lynn McClain, was formerly vice-principal at Carmel High School.

Mrs. McClain's comment on 60 years of married life: "Well, everything seems to be going along all right!"

Arts Ball to Take Aztec Theme

Plans for the gala Arts Ball to be given by the Carmel Art Association on November 25 at the Monterey Peninsula Country Club are rapidly taking shape and appear more intriguing as costumes, dances and exotic tropical decorations are being designed.

The Mayan-Aztec theme has been chosen for the ball. It conjures up in the imagination the lore and pageantry of the pre-Colombia period. The ball itself and the entertainment (under the direction of Dan Totheroh) are taken from the greatest of all the festivals, that which originally took place following the Aztec harvest. It was held in honor of the god, called KULKULKAN by the Mayans and QUETZALCOATL by the Aztecs, who had ruled during the Golden Age and then disappeared over the Eastern Sea. It is a revival of the fabulous balls given at the old Del Monte Hotel before the World War, and is for the benefit of the Carmel Art Association.

The COLLEGIATE DRESS SHOP at 489 Alvarado, Monterey, has a very fine selection of both. There is a casual dress especially worth your notice. It is a basic topper gabardine dress with pleated skirt...for only $17.95. In winter white and chartreuse it has one red sleeve and one blue sleeve--and in powder blue it has one red sleeve and one chartreuse sleeve. To tie in this interesting detail, the dresses have, just below the shoulder, a jewelled arrow trim which is repeated in the gold arrow trim of the leather belt.

For campus wear there are rayon casuals in tiny checks that look like wool, with navy, green and brown predominating. They have three-quarter length sleeves, and would be wonderful for the class room, for sorority luncheons, and for fall football games when you wouldn't want to be too warm.

Finally, there are pastel jerseys--all with beige tops and pink, lime or blue skirts. The color of each skirt is repeated in a band at the top. There is a removable "fleur de lis" pin. The soft "ice cream" colors used in these non-crushable dresses mean that they're suitable for many things--for Sunday evening supper, for hotel dancing when worn with a frothy little hat, or for any occasion that calls for your "best party dress." You know where to find it...at the COLLEGIATE DRESS SHOP at 489 Alvarado in Monterey.

WHEN WON'T PAINT CHIP? When it is a synthetic rubber paint sensation like Satin Luminal. The CARMEL PAINT AND WALL PAPER COMPANY is very proud of Satin Luminal, the only paint with every modern advantage. It's scrubbable, it's durable, it's safe, it's easy, it's quick, it's economical and it's beautiful! It's wonderful to have a paint you can really scrub, for it washes like enamel. Even ink, pencil marks, grease, oil and other stains clean off easily with common soap and water. We'll tell you more about this paint later on, but now the important thing to know is that it's scrubbable. It's the pride and joy of the CARMEL PAINT AND WALL PAPER COMPANY on Junipero and Fourth.

BASKETRY AND KNITTING! How the two go together! At KAY'S KNITTING KLINIC you can select Lauhala baskets from a variety of sizes and shapes. Some are woven of both bleached and natural Lauhala leaves to effect more interesting designs. Some have the double weave for a heavier basket. All of them have any number of uses. They come in three wastebasket sizes and can be purchased in sets or singly. The baskets are wonderful when used as hand-bags, knitting baskets or lunch and picnic boxes. So...if you are looking for an unusual as well as practical gift, drop in at KAY'S KNITTING KLINIC, on Mission and Fifth, and purchase a Lauhala basket. At the same time you will be helping convalescents not yet ready to return to full-time employment in their communities, for these baskets are made by men at the Rehabilitation Home and Shop in Hilo, sponsored by the Tuberculosis Association in Hawaii.

FOR WELL BRED CLOTHES THAT VERY NICELY bring out your best qualities, go to LYNN'S LIMITED and look over the selection of custom-made tweed and milltine gabardine suits. The suits are sleek and rich looking, and you couldn't help feeling quietly luxurious in any one of them. You can choose from colors that are soft and muted or positive and vibrant. In one of the suits, cocoa and taupe are combined; in another, cocoa and white. A navy blue suit with red collar and cuffs and navy blue trim is unusual, and would be very gay worn during the holidays. Custom-made handbags to match the suits and toppers can be ordered. The toppers can either be made up of the same material as the suit or of fleece dyed to match the suit. A beige suit with a cocoa skirt has a jacket that can easily be worn with matching slacks.

Other high points: Chinatown imports, soft sarong dresses with boleros in LYNN'S own out-of-this-world fabrics; prints for only $25.00 which would be wonderful in your wardrobe now, or during the Christmas holidays when you might feel the need for a change, or just for a touch of spring in your clothes. They still are suitable worn under your winter or fur coat.

These beautifully styled luxurious suits and lounging clothes (along with all sorts of accessories) are yours to look over at LYNN'S LIMITED, on Ocean Avenue and Lincoln Street.

SUITS WITH A NEW YORK, LONDON OR PARIS AIR? Yes, right here in Carmel at the COUNTRY SHOP. The suit? The Davidou, of course. Davidow is a designer of suits that leave nothing to be asked for. The price range is from $75.00 (for plain domestic Shetland wool) to $115.00 (for imported fabrics). Davidow never forgets the good old flannel suit, which varies only slightly in style every year, and like a good friend is always there. He uses slash pockets, inset pockets, patch pockets and so on. There are tweeds in plain colors. There are plaids, houndstooth checks and diagonal tweeds. There are nubby materials that look almost like a knit.

In the plaids, green, rust, mocha and egg shell are worked together, or, if you prefer, green, yellow and mocha. One plaid, a Linton tweed in red and green, is used in the jacket and combined with a moss green skirt. Another in brown, black and eggshell stripe is my idea of a nothing-left-to-be-desired suit. It can be worn with either black or brown and can be dressed up or down.

In addition to Davidou, the COUNTRY SHOP has the Glen Hunt line of suits ranging from $69.95 to $89.95, including imported as well as domestic tweeds. These suits are beautifully tailored and conservative. For the person who wishes even a less expensive suit the COUNTRY SHOP has a group of suits manufactured by Kabatcraft Sportswear for Glen Hunt. Because Glen Hunt is in the habit of doing things well, Kabatcraft Sportswear suits that range from $49.95 to $59.95 have lost nothing in design, cutting and finishing. All the experience, taste and skill behind Glen Hunt is behind these suits. Believe me, they are a buy. The lining is pure dye silk. One suit is available in a light gray flannel and another in a charcoal gray that truly is as good a bargain as I've ever seen. So, for your imported or domestic suit or that skillfully constructed economical suit that is on a par with the more expensive suit, it's the COUNTRY SHOP on Ocean Avenue and Lincoln. No corners have been cut. Remember, the quality of a garment is determined by what has gone into it.

FOR YOU CLEAN-CUT MODERNS who can be sentimentally attached to patchwork quilts, whether new or old, the ones made in these times are perhaps prettier than the old-time ones. It would be nice if you could identify the cloth as belonging to Mary's first party dress or Tommy's Sunday suit, but if that is not your lot, you still can have the patchwork quilt that you have always admired. MRS. LYDIA MITCHELL has some beauties for sale at her Carmel home. She has the Pansy Pattern, the Baby Wedding Ring, the Flower garden, the Seven Stars and the Little Dutch Girl patchwork quilts. The Pansy Pattern is appliqued on a quilted background and the others are straight patchwork on quilted backgrounds. These quilts can be used both on double and twin beds, so if it's that light, cheery, fresh, clean, washable look you want in your bedroom, telephone MRS. LYDIA MITCHELL at 7-6907. And don't forget...these quilts can become a prize possession your grandchild will inherit.

WEDNESDAY MORNING CLEAN-UP... The business community had an early morning clean-up job to do the day after Hallowe'en, as the pictures above show. Although most of the windows in town were soaped, it was noted that there was not the destructive damage with blunt instruments that has sometimes been done in the past.

Cleaning started in some cases as early as 5 A.M. Top picture shows Frank Putnam hard at work on his windows; next, Gump's and the Carmel Hardware; next to bottom, Mr. and Mrs. Reginald LeMon just getting started, as their associate Walter Parker looks on. Bramblett Against Socialized Medicine

Voluntary medicine or socialized medicine will be one of the big issues to be settled on November 7 when voters decide what sort of a congress they want, Congressman Ernest K. Bramblett told Santa Barbarans this week.

The 11th District Congressman spoke before a group of citizens during a "Meet Your Congressman" session.

"The Congress that you help to elect will choose between two kinds of medicine--voluntary or socialized--which will affect the health of American citizens for many years to come!" Bramblett stated.

He went on to say that he supported voluntary medicine wholeheartedly and would fight the socialization of the nation's health.

"Our present system of voluntary medicine is the best system that has ever been devised," he declared. "It's getting better every day!"

Bramblett cited the progress made since 1900 by explaining that the average baby born in that year could look forward to a life expectancy of 49 years, but that a baby born today can look forward to a 68-year lifetime.

"That's an increase in life expectancy of 19 years in a half century--a record socialized medicine can never hope to reach," the Congressman said.

He added that proof of the failure of socialized medicine is evident in England which has had some form of socialized medicine since 1911, and in Norway since 1909.

Bramblett said that in England the death rate from tuberculosis is 62 out of 100,000 people and in Norway the rate is 86 per 100,000.

"In Russia, which has the ultimate in socialized medicine, the death rate is 130 deaths for each 100,000 of its people!" the 11th District candidate for re-election said.

"It's not hard to see that under voluntary medicine America has the best system when you find the death rate for the same disease is 47 in 100,000," he added. "That figure is for 1948--the healthiest year in our history."

In England the people call their socialized medicine "three minute medicine" since most of the doctors have to examine 20 patients an hour and a well-known medical journal said in an editorial that "certain very definite risks to childbirth have been added."

"It is the people themselves who have to pay under a system of socialized medicine which can only give Grade B treatment," Bramblett said.

He further cited the facts that when Britain's Foreign Minister, Ernest Bevin, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer, Sir Stafford Cripps, needed treatment, both went to private hospitals where they paid for Grade A medicine and surgery.

"They didn't trust their own system of socialized medicine," the Congressman declared. "And I don't want it here in America!"

Congressman Bramblett has now returned to Monterey County for a series of meetings with organizations and to appear in open forum at an American Legion session on November 3 in the City of Monterey.

VOTE YES

on No. 11

This ballot proposition corrects a defect in the law, to make it possible for an owner of land registered under the Land Title (Torrens) Act to withdraw it if he wishes to do so. There is now no way to do this.

The measure was passed unanimously by the State Legislature and signed by the Governor, in answer to the plea of many distressed property owners. Proposition 11 will save taxpayers hundreds of thousands a year, by simplifying the work of County Recorders, whose association has endorsed it. Proposition 11 also has been endorsed by scores of civic, labor, and business organizations, and so far as we know has been opposed by none.

WHO IS IT?

Lawyer Eben Whittlesey, a New Yorker by birth and a Carmelite by choice, is the subject of this week's "Who Is It?"

A member of a family that has been in New England since 1638, Eben was born in New York in 1913. His father, the late Granville Whittlesey, was a Connecticut and New York lawyer and at one time served in the Connecticut legislature. His mother now lives in Carmel, and one of his brothers is a lawyer in New York. There have been several lawyers in the family since 1638, he says, but it hasn't been a consistent habit.

Eben attended Horace Mann School in New York City, Evans ranch school in Tuscon, Arizona, Williams College in Williamstown, Massachusetts, and Stanford Law School, from which he received his LL.B. in 1939.

In 1922 he got his first look at Carmel. He came to the Monterey Peninsula from time to time during his earlier years to visit his uncle and aunt, Colonel and Mrs. Roger S. Fitch, in Monterey. His aunt is his mother's sister. Colonel Fitch was commanding officer of the Presidio in 1931.

Shortly before he was to take his bar examination in 1940, Eben lost his sight. However, he went ahead with his studies (which now included braille) and the following year was admitted to the bar. In 1942 he came to Carmel permanently, practicing law in the office of Colonel Shelburn Robinson. From 1942 to 1946 he held down the office for the colonel, who was back in active service with the army, and in 1946 the two of them formed a partnership.

Eben was married in 1946 to Miss Mary Bigland of Carmel, the daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Bigland. They have one child, a daughter, Deborah--who was born in September, 1948.

Eben's constant companion is his 12-year-old guide dog, Milt, a German shepherd he acquired in 1941 at the Seeing Eye school in Morristown, New Jersey, the original and largest guide dog training school in this country. Eben lived at the training school for a month, while he and Milt got to know each other. Milt, who guides Eben wherever he wants to go in Carmel (and San Francisco, too, occasionally) is now probably as familiar with the village as the oldest inhabitant. He goes about his job with great dignity, and not even some of the sights on Ocean Avenue can swerve him from his purpose

Since his arrival in Carmel, Eben has been active in public affairs. He and his wife have been directors of the Monterey County Symphony Association since it was founded in December, 1946; he was first vice-president in 1947, 1948, and 1949. He has sung in the Bach Festival choir and the All Saints' choir, and is a member of the Peninsula Men's chorus. He's a charter member of the Carmel Lions Club, and was on the Community Chest board from 1942 to 1948, serving as president in 1945. Also, he'll tell you with a grin, he had his fling at politics: he ran for the city council in 1944--unsuccessfully.

In his law practice, Eben uses braille a great deal, as he does his recording machine--because Milt can't help him out along the legal line. His favorite non-legal activity is gardening. He had his sight long enough, he says, to know what flowers look like and now he gets as much enjoyment from gardening as anyone does, even if he's growing something he has never seen, because he has an unlimited imagination.

POLAROID One-Minute Photograph

NEW YORKER HAD TO SEE CARMEL...William K. Dorman, for the past two years a charter subscriber of the CARMEL SPECTATOR, has been avidly reading the paper and enjoying the photographs. Upon arrival here last week he stated that he did not believe our scenic views could come up to the photographs in the SPECTATOR--but he is convinced now that they do.

Mr. Dorman, who is manager of John H. Perry Associates, a leading Eastern newspaper representative firm, had the chance to visit Carmel as he came west to open offices in San Francisco and Los Angeles. In the latter cities he has arranged a tie-up with one of the West's leading firms, George D. Close Inc. Mr. Dorman is an amateur painter of note and during his visit has photographed in color many scenes which he plans to put on canvas upon his return home.

Jacobsen Among Strong Supporters Of Richard Nixon

Many leading Monterey County Democrats and Republicans alike have strongly endorsed the candidacy of Congressman Richard Nixon for election to the U.S. Senate November 7, it was announced today by County Nixon Committee chairman, Alan G. Pattee.

Typical of many strong endorsements from community leaders, Pattee said, is that of Andy Jacobsen, chairman, Board of Supervisors:

"Richard Nixon is one of the finest candidates for political office I have ever seen. He is an outstanding American. His courage and willingness to fight for what he knows is right has been proven many times. He is an experienced, capable leader.

"Nixon knows the Communist threat first hand. He is credited with breaking the Hiss-Chambers espionage case. He knows Communist partyline thinking and tactics. He knows how to lead the fight against them.

Railway Express to Serve Carmel from Monterey

After approximately 25 years of maintaining offices in Carmel, the Railway Express on Tuesday of this week started serving Carmel from its Monterey depot. The same pick-up and delivery service heretofore offered Carmel customers will be continued.

The decision to give up the handling of freight in a separate office, with duplicating service in a community nearby, is in line with similar consolidations in other parts of the country. Parcel post competition has made it necessary to make economies wherever possible.

R. L. Emmons, who has been the Carmel agent for a number of years, will be in the Monterey office. Mr. Emmons informed the CARMEL SPECTATOR that he regretted leaving Carmel, where he has made many friends. He can be reached by calling 5-5883.

The CARMEL SPECTATOR will occupy the building being vacated by the Railway Express, on Seventh Street between Dolores and San Carlos.
